FSP Reform

The joint ACF/FSRP testimony to the Parliamentary Committees on Agriculture and Lands on Performance of the Fertiliser Support Programme in Zambia is now up to the FSRP website. The hearings last week focused on the reform of the FSP:

- Written Submission - On Performance of the Fertiliser Support Programme
- Oral Presentation-powerpoint - On Performance of the Zambian Fertiliser Support Programme

The FSP reform report put together by experts assembled by MACO can be found here.

Posted by Cho at 06:00
Labels: agriculture

0 comments:

Post a Comment

Newer Post  Home  Older Post

Subscribe to: Post Comments (Atom)

Recent Comments

Cho, You are right - Websites should control the ... - Tuesday, April 28, 2009 - kaela

Cho: I enjoyed your review of Dambisa Moyo's Dead... - Monday, April 27, 2009 - Billie Pritchett

lol! Its poor regulation by the website. There a... - Monday, April 27, 2009 - Cho

"Its unfortunate when people are not willing to do... - Monday, April 27, 2009 - Zedian

Kaela, MrK, I have read your comments. I still t... - Monday, April 27, 2009 - MrK

My other pieces

House of Chiefs

Resolving succession disputes - Youth, Sport and Child Development Minister Kenneth Chipungu last week advised Chiefs in Luapula Province to sit down with their royal family members and p...

14 hours ago

On Twitter

Cho: Zambia Development Agency Spotlight - April 2009 Edition: http://zambian-economist.blogspot.t...

23 hours ago

Comments Policy

All contributors should follow the basic principles of a productive dialogue: communicate their perspective, ask, comment, respond, and share information and knowledge, but do all this with a positive approach. All comments that are abusive, off-topic, use excessive foul language or include ad hominem attacks are deleted.